

Fourvière Novena: Day 3 – 16 July 2016

1. A reading from The Church of Mercy by Pope Francis, 2014

Have the courage to go against the tide of this culture of efficiency, this culture of waste. Encountering and welcoming everyone, building solidarity – a word that is being hidden by this culture, as if it were a bad word – solidarity and fraternity: these are what make our society truly human.

2. A reading from a letter from Sr Marie de la Croix (New Caledonia) to Fr Yardin (Lyon), February 20, 1859, (OPS I, 133)

Sister Marie de la Croix lived the simple, hidden life of Mary at Nazareth, sharing the life of the people of New Caledonia during the second half of the nineteenth century. Despite her fragile health, she led a fully apostolic life as an active missionary in the field of education. Her vocation, which is also ours., was “to unite apostolic zeal with discreet presence” (Const. 53) in the spirit of Mary both at Nazareth and in the new-born Church.

I am writing to you from my palace with an upturned box for a table. ...I am so happy here in this stable, a wretched little corridor made of tree branches, badly lined with the bark of the ‘Niaouli’ tree, where the rain is pleasantly refreshing! This is my classroom!

In the morning I assemble all the children who are spared from sickness or death, for the latter mows down everything here, and I make them read while teaching them a hundred and one little things which will be developed later. In the evening I have as many women as my stable can hold. I have two reading classes, then I make them sew while we talk half in French and half in ‘Tuo’, which is the language that has fallen to me by chance and which I am studying. I cannot do much, not being able to speak, but the Blessed Virgin who is the Mistress over us, has already won the hearts of these people for me; women and children jostle around me with affection. When finishing a class I have to repeat the signal ten times, I always give it reluctantly.

‘Come now. If we are Marists, it must be seen in our behaviour.’ Fr Jean-Claude Colin

3. Prayer

Mary, of Fourvière, show us what love is and from where it draws its origin and its constantly renewed power.
Holy Mary, good Mother of Fourvière, you have given the world its true light, Jesus, your Son - the Son of God.
You abandoned yourself completely to God’s call and this became a wellspring of the goodness which flows forth from him.
You inspired the first Marists to create a Society dedicated to showing the Marian face of the Church.
Show us Jesus. Lead us to him.
Teach us to know and love him,
so that we too can become capable of true love and be fountains of living water in the midst of a thirsting world.
Amen.
